Lyrics: Extract. Transform. Debase.

Jaded

Let's come to

The point to finally switch it off

a point you pull it off

and no one even cares

Cause everyone's so fed up

Is it big enough to make it

let's boredom await it,

Getting jaded!

I'm off the radar

And there might be efforts for you...

Constitution shall not

What can you do while your anger has been canalized

what can you do with everyone's in need for a little privacy

what can you do if the chorus is suddenly only half the volume

what can we do if time has changed you-yeah you

They say "constitution shall not!" with a bad deal on top

Freedom's declared while innocents get shot out of the unknown.

what can you do when all the things around you have turned into a mess to start anew while beaten black and blue what can I do with transformations, associations and it all comes true what can I, me, myself

what to do

Chin chin

Flowers and strawberries

Cheesecake and vegan turkey

We all know about- it's easy to handle

We all know, we all know..

Sugar sugar- Sweet sweets

Honey honey and flavoured candies

Chin chins favours economies

We all know, We all know..

Flowers and blueberries

Money money flavours indiscreet

We all know about what never happens

we all know, We all know

...a hand that feeds rarely got bitten!

I know you bet on me I'm sorry I've to quit the team

I know you reckon on me I don't want to play in your team

Bencik

You sit and you're making yourself a target, in opposition you teach us how to be brave

Retired with a small pension, speaking out loud resist the tension.

Call out a vision, enlighten the fog of lies make a decision, it's truly no surprise

Spitting image

Come on boy you look so angry. May it be you 're looking for applause Come on boy you look so afraid. Is it you lack a bit of self esteem

Turn the lights off. Your spitting image.

might become your hero plain-talking for the cheated ones and You!

Come on boy these men are angry. You gotta be part of their applause...uhhh

Come on boy see it's getting toxic you look so tired meanwhile, is it a lack of the applause?

Come on boys you look so afraid. Yet you're hoping for your self-esteem.

Come on boys you need to overcome, get over what they call existential fear

Boy there's no such thing like a brotherhood, there's no nation at all

Requiem for R.S.

.. he's kept it as always, never made a headline, wrong time, wrong place too long ago,
forgotten long ago.

Hey you

Hey, can you also see the anger rising? It's not their fault!

Let me speak to you as an honest working man from eye to eye. As I'm sure you know the truth My brothers and sisters had now become the focus of your hatred. Please turn off your microphones for just one bloody minute

It's one by one...

Checked your record: problem!

Set your reminder

Looking for solutions, looking for an easy way

Up your damn nation, we're building walls for being safe.

Small man, sitting in the cellar room of bright concrete skyscrapers that rule the world

Looking for variety, find a remarkable detail

I lost faith in any system, I'll use the words I've to say you're so pissed off and meanwhile..

All those fireworks way too frequently all those changes way too randomly
