TREEDeon
New World Hoarder

Nutcrème Superspreader

Dead, so fucking dead
Depersonalised
Dead, so fucking dead
Traumatised
It's dwelling in the corner, unheard
The shadow that is me

I pray to the gods
Let me pick up my axe
Cut it all open
Let the wound bleed
Cut it all open
Let the wound heal
Inner eye sees
Inner eye sees

Insanity feeds on fear

Omega Time Bomb

You stand on this stone, aeons old
Wrought from fire, silent
In your hand
You hold the refuse
The omega time bomb

We see the storm coming
We let the winds carry us
Your lies for all to see
Your lies will bury you

We walk these tamed lands
Carrying the sea in our blood
Twisted heirs of the nature gods
We will endure

How do you want to live?
How do you want to die?
In plastic, poisoned idles?
Or water, fire, earth and sky?

Endure

New World Hoarder

Look at how we live
We're so hard to forgive
Our hands are filthy and raw

We fully pack our rooms
Turn them into our tombs
Choosing lies for our fall

Main course has come and gone
Not sure what planet you're on Discarding more as we spawn

Look at how we live

We all wanna believe
We all wanna believe
We all wanna believe

Let's just ignore it all
Earth rise to fire / Sky fall
Who needs to breathe anymore

Look at how we live

We all wanna believe
We all wanna believe

Our sins are rising
Lapping at our feat(!)
Our greed is fevered
Getting paid to deceive

New World Hoarder
New World Hoarder

We all wanna believe

Viking Meditation Song

All the shit you do
All the sides you choose
It's alright for you
But not for me!

The truth that you defy
Sweet life that you deny
All your Christian lies
It's all true for you
But not for me!

Return to the sky
Return to the earth
Return to the fire
Return to the sea

To the sea

RhV1

You pay the price
Pay toll as we pass
The jury's out now
Pay later with your ass

Your freedom lies
On the blood of your cash
The future's here now
With the hate of our past

If you can't adapt now
You'll never outlast
Misled by your fear
Now the die has been cast

Ready / Human! Virus #1
All the gods they say you're done
All the gods they say you're done

You pay the price
Pay toll as we pass
The jury's out now

Everything that we touch
Will burn up and crash

Läderlappen

Here we go again
Surely feels like dying
Always bleeding, bleeding, bleeding
Always burning, shedding my skin

Bat Spirit came to me
Night-sight showed me the way
The freedom of the self
I hold the key to my own cage

& I'm running, running...
I hide / what I can't say
Echo locate / my prey
Halo / and fornicate
Fear not / in your decay

Bat Spirit came to me

I hold the key to my own cage
I hold the key to my cage

I am the key
I am the cage
